ad fact sheet

The Fourth Annual Benefit Art Auction and Dinner benefiting the Lotus House Shelter will be co-hosted by The Sundari Foundation, Inc. and Martin Z. Margulies Family Foundation at the Margulies Art Warehouse in the Wynwood Art District of Miami on Saturday, November 8th, 2008. Over 500 movers and shakers, many from Miami's burgeoning contemporary art world, are expected to attend this festive evening of dinner, cocktails, and a silent and live art auction of major works of contemporary art. Patrons of this unique event will dine amidst the sculpture exhibition at the Warehouse featuring over 60 works from the collection of Martin Z. Margulies, ranging from the 1940's to the present.

The benefit auction features the highest quality contemporary works of art donated by artists and galleries from around the world and selected works from the personal collection of Martin Z. Margulies. Conducted by the CEO of Sotheby's from New York personally two years in a row, this benefit auction is truly the premier contemporary art auction in Florida.

Proceeds benefit the "Lotus House Women's Shelter," a unique residential facility and resource center for homeless women, offering a sanctuary from life on the streets - a place where the mind, body and spirit of women most in need are supported and nurtured.
